ENROLLMENT

The camp is open to all violin, viola, cello and string bass students. Those eligible for the middle school camp will have completed grades 5, 6, or 7, and have had at least one year of instruction on their instrument. Audition pieces should be comparable to music in the back of Suzuki Book One. Those eligible for the high school camp will have completed grades 8, 9, 10, or 11, and have had at least two years of instruction on their instrument.

AUDITIONS

Middle school and high school students will audition for section and seating placement online. Go to www.campconbrio.com/auditions for complete info.

MUSIC

Camp Con Brio provides your student with over four hours of music instruction per day including rehearsals, sectionals, technique studies, and more. Students will work with exceptional music educators from around the state and get to experience music in a welcoming setting of friends and fun!

CONCERT

Friends and family are invited to join us for the final concert on Saturday at 11:30 AM.

LODGING

Students will be housed in cabins or lodge-style rooms. Meals are served in the lodge, with rehearsals and activities are all within walking distance. Every effort will be made to accommodate roommate requests. Rooming assignments will be given at registration.
